FLOOR DEBATE

February 4, 2003 LB 292

would urge its adoption.

SPEAKER BROMM: Thank you, Senator Landis. Senator Wehrbein, you're recognized.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Mr. Speaker and members of the body, may I ask Senator Landis a question, please?

SPEAKER BROMM: Senator Landis, would you yield?

SENATOR LANDIS: Do my best.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: That sounds very logical to me. I was just wondering, that information is available at the county level for those that are interested, and that would be the extent of it. Would that be the idea?

SENATOR LANDIS: The parties, of course, will have their own copies. It would be available at the county level, but this requires counties to forward it to somebody who has no relationship to the process.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: I understand. In fact, we ought to go through some of the stuff that we get. Maybe wonder if we need all the material that we get in our offices. Thank you.

SENATOR LANDIS: I will tell you that I had a conversation with Mark Reynolds of TERC, when he was in over on this bill, and I said, sending me those cases is a waste of paper; we've killed a forest sending me TERC opinions I never look at; please stop. I think he's going to stop doing that.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: I...

SENATOR LANDIS: I think they were trying to fulfill some kind of a duty, but...

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: I know...

SENATOR LANDIS: ...if we are, I don't think we need do.
